The Spirit of N.H.S.

As leaves of gold, and red and brown
Wend their way to the barren ground,
Hopes are high and hearts are gay
As we cheer our players all the way.

Soon wintry snows begin to fall,
White are the streets and trees so tall,
There's still a rush with vigor and zest
To tell the world that we're the best.

The sun is bright and skies are blue,
Flowers emerge with a lovely hue,
We're still with the teams as they defend
With faith and devotion to the very end.

Now school is over and summer is here,
We're left with our memories so precious and dear,
But one thing stands out above the rest,
The wonderful SPIRIT of N. H. S.

Dedication

To a man whose contributions to Narrows High School have been endless; whose loyalty and determination have set a glowing example for all who know him; whose honesty and sincerity have led him to great heights of respect and admiration from students and teachers alike; and to one who has done so very much to shape our lives through his standards of integrity and good sportsmanship . . .

The 1968 NARROSONIAN is proudly dedicated to . . .

Mr. William B. Patteson, Jr.

Foreword

As we, the Seniors of Narrows High School, prepare to leave the friends we love so much, we think back and remember our first day as members of a school that would love us as much as we loved it. The confusion and excitement, the bewilderment and magnificence of that single day would not let us believe that we were someday destined to become Seniors.

Then as the days turned into weeks, the weeks to months, and the months, years; we slowly began to mold into what seemed to be a typical class. But deep down in our hearts, we realize that ours certainly wasn't so ordinary as we wonder what kept us all so close yet so far apart.

Enough of reminiscing, the time has come when we must take our place in society and look to the future for making America an even better place to live.

The Class of '68 is gone and we, our efforts, and our education are but a mere fond memory.

Across the hills of ole Virginia,
There comes a melody devine,
It fills our hearts with deepest longing,
And sweetest memories entwine,

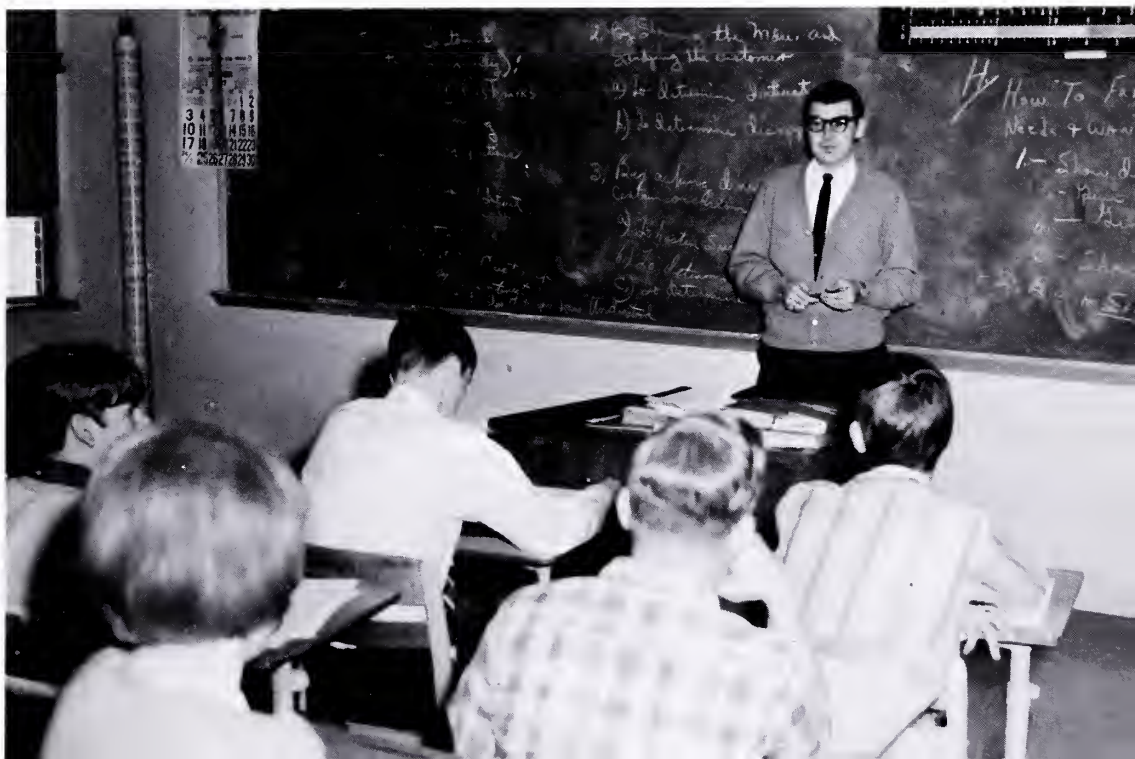

It brings back
thoughts of dear
old school days,

And friends we love
so true,

So while we're singing, voices ringing,
Love we're bringing you . . .

Rah! Rah! Rah!

Hail Narrows! Hail Narrows!
Hail Green and Gold!
True as of old!

Hail Narrows! Hail Narrows!
Hail to ole N.H.S.!
